An Avalon Halloween!

This month we are hoping to provide inter-generational activity & Fall fun by incorporating our beloved local community into our events here at our Avalon community. Thursday the week of Halloween, we will provide a Haunted Carnival with games, food and prizes for our staff and residents only. Friday, we will host our first ever Trunk or Treat open to residents, family, and the local community. If you know someone who would like to RSVP to our community event. Please contact Kay at (248)467-2282. Masks and social distance are required at this event whenever possible.
